Venice, July 1. N. S. Letters from Vicenza of the 29th past say, 46 Pieces of Cannon, for the use of the German Forces, were come down from Roveredo under the Convoy of a Regiment of Cuiraſſiers commanded by the Prince of Darmſtad, and that on the 27th at night, 12000 Germans passed the Canal Bianco; And 'tis said, that a Detachment of their Troops has likewise passed the Po, and are entred into the Country of Ferrara belonging to the Pope; That 4000 guard the Pass of the Canal Bianco, and 4000 are posted at Castelbaldo, expecting more Forces with their Artillery. The French make frequent Marches and Countermarches to observe the Germans, and they have prepared Bridges at several Places on the Adige. 'Tis said, the Governor of Milan has received Orders from Madrid, to Confiscate the Estates of all the Subjects of that Dutchy who are in the Emperor's Service, of which number is the Marquis of Visconti, now in the German Army. An Express arrived here the 26th past from Constantinople, who brings an Account, that Signior Soranzo, the Venetian Ambassador, had Audience the 17th of April of the Grand Vizier, from whom he received the Grand Signior's Ratification of the Treaty of Peace between the Port and this Republick, at which the Mufti was present, who told the Ambassador, That the Grand Signior had Sworn upon the Alcoran to observe the Peace inviolably; After which, the Ambassador and the Gentlemen of his Retinue were presented with Cattans, and splendidly entertained. Signior Soranzo having thus performed his Commission, is preparing to return home, and Signior Giustiniani is appointed to reside at Constantinople as Bayle or Ambassador in Ordinary from this Republick.

Vienna, June 29. The Emperor being informed, that the Court of France are sending a further Reinforcement to their Army in Italy, his Imperial Majesty has resolved to do the like, and has already appointed the Regiments of Lorrain and Ravenstau for that Service, and 'tis said, several other Imperial Regiments will be sent thither. The Letters from Prince Eugene of the 19th Instant give an Account, that 3000 Imperialists under the Command of General Palfi, passed the Adige the 14th at l'Abbadia below Legnano without any opposition, and cast up Retrenchments to secure the Passage of the other Regiments; That Prince Eugene and the Prince of Commerci were gone to l'Abbadia, having left Prince Charles of Vaudemont with part of the Army at St. Michael; That on the 15th the French attempted to lay a Bridge over the Adige near Pescantina, in order to intercept the Artillery, and the Imperial Troops which were not yet come up from Roveredo; but that Prince Charles of Vaudemont had hitherto hindred their putting that Design in execution. Prince Ragnzzi has been several times examined at Newstad, and denies the Matters he is charged with; But 'tis said, the Sieur Simay, who is likewise accused of the Conspiracy, does not go about to justify himself, but casts himself upon the Emperor's Mercy.

Francfort, July 6. The Forces of Swabia and Franconia are marching from their Quarters to the General Rendezvous; and Prince Lewis of Baden is shortly expected at Heilbron to confer with the Deputies of those Circles, in order to adjust Matters about the said Forces joining
